

Canine Massage for your Best Friend

In this one hour hands-on workshop, we will cover techniques to give your pet a basic massage and you will practice a full massage sequence with your dog. The massage techniques you will learn can help your dog with any of the following issues:

Arthritis and pain
Mobility Issues
Injury prevention
Recovery after injury or surgery
Anxiety, depression and other emotional issues

In this workshop you will learn:

- ❖ How massage can help your dog
- ❖ Basic techniques for a full body massage
- ❖ How to customize the massage to meet your dog's needs
- ❖ Hands-on practice with your own dog

Where: Colorado Springs Pet Expo
When: Sunday, April 28, 2019
Session 1 1:30 PM
Session 2 3:00 PM
Cost: $20

Please bring your own leashed, harnessed dog and a dog bed or blanket to work on. Participants need to be able to work on the floor with their dog, so a pillow or blanket for your comfort is recommended as well.

Space is limited! Please register early at <https://how-to-massage-your-dog.eventbrite.com>

Lisa Nickens is the owner of Canine Wellness Colorado, a Denver-based business offering canine massage therapy, acupressure, craniosacral therapy and animal reiki. Lisa is certified in canine therapeutic and sports massage and was an instructor at the Colorado School of Animal Massage.

For more details call or e-mail:

Lisa Nickens 303-710-1294 caninewellnessco@gmail.com